the things are out-of-date immediately with all the constant changes that come with new days. The photo board would allow us to make pics of new members as they come to us and post them immediately. Such a board would help answer all of our "who-is-that" questions.

By the end of the day today, our VBS leadership team will have met twice to get this year's VBS extravaganza—Game Show—off and running. In roughly a month, we'll be recruiting all the teachers, helpers, etc. The dates are June 21-24. Mark a calendar. Plan to be here. Plan to help. VBS plays a significant role in winning the hearts and minds of our precious kids—and their/our guests—to Jesus.

What can we say to our local Scouts except a BIG THANKS for lending a big helping hand in support of our attempt to feed our friends and neighbors in and around Bono. Last Saturday, Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts conducted a Food Drive that, in the end, donated 1,600 lbs. of food and over $700 to our Benevolent Fund, with which we'll buy food to distribute. Lanny & Karen Shirley are leaders for Bono's Boy and Girl Scout Troops.

We now have six impressive resumes for our Youth and Family Minister opening. Because of some questions we've asked them all to answer in writing, we're about two to three weeks behind our original timeline. What we need the church to do is pray fervently about this young man, whomever God decides he will be. Stay tuned.

We must remember that people all around us need Jesus. He came for them as much as for us. He loves them as much as He loves us. He died for them as much as He died for us. Sadly, they are part of a world that is becoming darker and darker because it knows less and less of Him and of His deliverance.

Will we accept the call as Isaiah did when God asked, "Who will go? Whom shall we send?" His answer was, "Here I am, send me."

Bono Church of Christ Newsletter

April 26, 2009 (17/09)

This past Sunday, Derrick Anderson, Jennifer Blankenship, and Sandy Tate came asking that we pray with and for them. Derrick told us he had simply wandered too far away from the Lord and spiritual things. Jennifer and Sandy both spoke of storms in their lives and came seeking God's blessing of peace

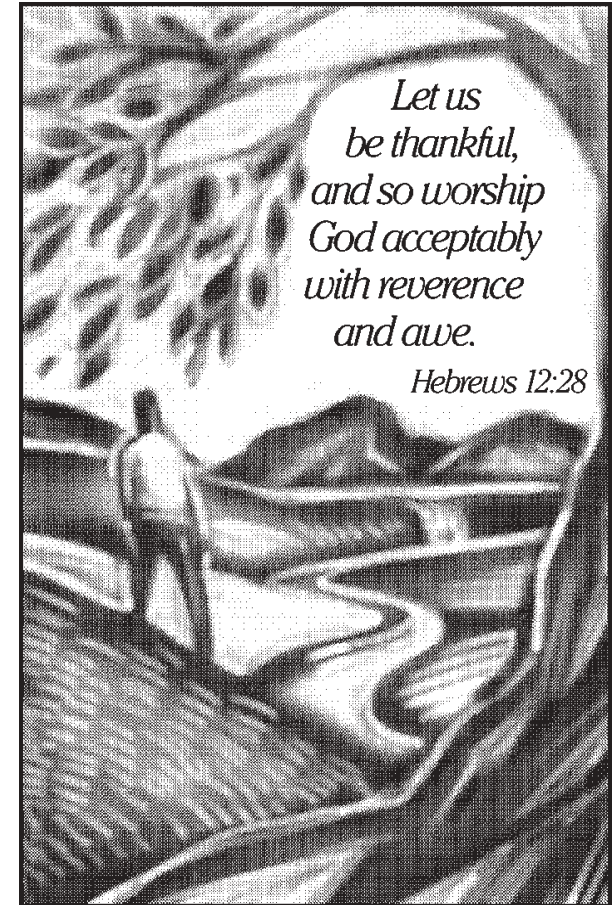

I'm not sure we recognize enough the gift, blessing, and privilege we have to share each other's loads. Often we are the little boy trying to move the sixty pound rock—when his daddy asked him if he was using all his strength, he said he was... but he hadn't thought about his daddy's strength to lift it. When our brothers, sisters, and friends come asking that we join them in prayer for the handling of a burden, they are using more of their strength because they add ours to theirs. Then, of course, when we all ask God for His help, we're tapped into all there is... and all we need.

Have you enjoyed and benefitted from your directory already? They are great! I've already learned who some people are that, for whatever reason my mind functions as it does, I just hadn't been able to get their names with their faces. I'm sure I'm the only one with that problem... right?

We are fairly certain that we can put the entire directory up on our website. We'll have to get some of our technically-savvy folks to work on that for us.

I haven't given up on a membership/attendee photo board either. As great as a picture directory is,
